

Find and Explore Your Own Voice ...

... in a safe, supportive space.

This extended version of Pip's popular 'Find Your Own Voice' course is suitable for those new to harmony singing and for more experienced singers who would like explore what their voice can do. In a small, supportive group we will learn how the voice works and explore a progressive series of vocal exercises and techniques as well as learning simple harmony songs in different styles to help you find your sound, develop your ability to sing out, sing in tune and sing with confidence.

This fun but intensive course held over 4 days, Monday 15th - Thursday 18th August can help you:

- Work on breathing, posture and resonance
- Build the confidence to find your sound, and let your voice out
- Learn tools, tips and good habits to use when singing
- Build the skills to help you hold your part when singing in harmony
- Start training your own musicianship by developing 'inner hearing'
- Identify and work on increasing your range
- Learn simple rounds and songs to put what we've been learning into practice and experience the thrill of harmony singing in a small group.

'Find and Explore Your Own Voice' will be taught by Pip Wright, a local choir leader and music teacher with a passion for singing to enhance wellbeing and connection. Pip is a Natural Voice Practitioner who enjoys helping people find and develop their own voices through harmony singing.

To make it work for all participants, this course requires booking in advance and a commitment to attending all sessions. The number of singers will be limited to a maximum of 14 so that all singers can be heard and support each other and Pip can help with any individual issues or questions which emerge. You will come away with tools and techniques you can practise to help you progress during the course and when you are singing in the future.
