

Saturday 13th December 2025

Marazion Decorative Lights Committee presents :
GOLOWI GWAV Marazion 'Winter light' Parade

Info for Singers

4.00-4.45 Free workshop – make a greenery 'crown of light'

Godolphin Hotel will host us downstairs, those who want to join the spiral dance on the beach can make a wreath or just relax and enjoy the view. During the workshop singing leader Pip Wright, will teach us a (simple!) newly composed round which will be sung as we walk the spiral.

5.00 Spiral of Light and song

Gather on the on beach below the Godolphin Hotel, accessing the beach via the slipway, wearing your crown with lights and bring along a lantern too.

Option to join Pip as she leads the spiral walk and song.

Or Grab a window seat in the Godolphin to watch proceedings unfold on the beach below and as the parade crosses over the Causeway to the Mount

5.30 Cross the Causeway *Those who wish to cross over the causeway leave the spiral on the beach and head towards St Michaels Mount. We will be welcomed by the residents of the mount by the Christmas tree near the harbour. All sing 'We wish you a merry Christmas' by the tree and then return across the causeway . Walk up to the Godolphin via the slipway.

6.30 Carols at the Christmas tree outside the Godolphin Hotel

Cornish Carols from the choir then repair indoors. Mulled wine and mulled apple juice for those taking part in parade provided by Godolphin Hotel.

6.45 -7.15 Godolphin hotel Cornish carols inside & (TBC) pasties for choir following the set.

*PLEASE NOTE – The Causeway is an uneven, paved stone tidal pathway which can be slippery, has an irregular camber and is undertaken at your own risk. Sturdy walking shoes or boots, torch, warm, waterproof and layers are recommended. There will not be any toilet facilities available on the Mount.

Low tide 6.03pm, Causeway opens 4.45pm and closes at 7.30pm, but this is weather dependent so it may not be possible to cross over to the Mount. A decision will be made on the day.
